Key Theme:

The Church always has been and always will be susceptible to delusion about our spiritual state.

Key Application:

Jesus "knows" us, both our strengths and weaknesses. He commends our strengths and calls us to see our weaknesses and repent.

Key Verse:

Revelation 6:7 "He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. To the one who conquers I will grant to eat of the tree of life which is in the paradise of God."

Key Questions:

1. Have you abandoned your love of God and others? Does that love manifest itself in deeds?
2. Have you allowed a stumbling block of compromise in your life? Where have you been excluded from the world, where are you excluding yourself from the amenities and the comforts, entertainments of the world?
3. How can you strive to hear and keep this in your walk with Jesus?
