Key Theme:

The road to completion is one of striving to look at others as God does and love them as He loved us.

Key Application:

Base our interactions with others not upon selfishness but on the love of God and the call to love our neighbor as ourself.

Key Verse:

James 2:8-9 "If you really fulfill the royal law according to the Scripture, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself," you are doing well. But if you show partiality, you are committing sin and are convicted by the law as transgressors."

Key Questions:

1. Write down or discuss a time you allowed selfish motivation to affect how you treated someone.
2. Do you struggle to walk in the mercy and grace that Jesus has given you? Write down three reasons why that is the case? Can you find Scripture to speak to the truth of those?
3. Write down three ways you could love your neighbor as yourself this week.
